The Society of Parrot Breeders and Exhibitors is an international society striving for excellence in our captive breeding programs through the encouragement and education of our fellow aviculturists on the proper management and improved care of all parrots. We offer our members:

- Qualified Panel Judges - Rigid requirements in the appointment of judges to ensure a consistent standard in exhibition.
- Since 1985, the authority in parrot exhibition, standards, and classifications.
- The SPBE Journal - Our quarterly journal, published for and by members, covers avicultural issues and information.
- SPBE Bands - closed, traceable bands with no additional registration fees.
- The SPBE Breeding Academy - awards our members breeding accomplishments.
- SPBE Merit Awards - awards members achievements in exhibition.
- SPBEnet - An excellent, informational, online website for parrot lovers. Cover 10,000 visitors and climbing!
- SPBE Technical Correspondents - provide help and answers to members with questions concerning aviculture.
- The Parrot Preservation Project - Our consortium for breeders of parrots species.
- Free Advertising - members receive free classified ads in the quarterly journal.
